1. Dates to plan around

What	When	Note
Chaitra Navratri 2027	7–15 April 2027	Every Devi temple is at its busiest — go early in the day
Sharad Navratri 2027	Starts 30 September 2027	Book hotels near Chintpurni and Jwala Ji early
Ambubachi Mela, Kamakhya	Every June (2026: closed 22 June night – 26 June morning)	2027 dates not announced yet; Kamakhya stays closed for about three days

Dates: Drik Panchang (Navratri), Kamakhya temple announcements (Ambubachi). Temple timings change on festivals — confirm locally.

2. The five Shakti Peeths of Himachal — route with distances

Leg	Distance by road	Good to know
Chandigarh → Naina Devi (Bilaspur)	about 100–106 km	Cable car up to the temple; from Delhi add a day
Naina Devi → Chintpurni (Una)	about 112 km	Take the darshan slip (parchi) and join the official queue
Chintpurni → Jwala Ji (Kangra)	about 31 km	Shortest leg — both temples fit in one day
Jwala Ji → Brajeshwari / Kangra Devi	about 36 km	Kangra town; Gaggal airport is about 8 km away
Kangra → Chamunda	about 22 km	Below the Dhauladhar, about 15 km from Dharamshala

Usual pace: 5 days from Chandigarh. Adding Mansa Devi and Vaishno Devi (the Nau Devi route) takes about 7 days from Chandigarh or 9 from Delhi. Road distances from OpenStreetMap routing; hill roads are slower than the map suggests.

3. Packing list for elders

- ☐ Photo ID for every traveller (hotel check-in)
- ☐ Regular medicines for the whole trip + prescriptions
- ☐ BP / sugar monitor if used at home
- ☐ Comfortable non-slip shoes that slip off easily (shoes come off at every temple)
- ☐ Socks for cold temple floors
- ☐ Warm layer or shawl — Kangra evenings are cool
- ☐ Umbrella or rain jacket in July–August
- ☐ Cap, sunglasses and sunscreen
- ☐ Water bottle and light dry snacks for queues

☐ Small notes and coins for prasad and offerings

☐ Walking stick, knee cap or support belt if used

☐ Power bank and a list of emergency contacts

☐ Modest clothes; a scarf or cap to cover the head where asked

☐ Small cushion or folding seat for long queues

At the temples: go early, especially in Navratri · visit the Bhairava shrine too — tradition says he guards every peetha · no photos inside the sanctum · follow each shrine's notices · tell your driver about mobility needs so he can drop you closest to the gate.

4. The Shakti Peeths in India, state by state

The best-known list of 51 comes from the Pithanirnaya; this table also includes the 18 Maha Peethas and the 4 Adi Peethas, so it has more than 51 entries. Lists differ on some places and body parts. Outside India the lists also name seats in Bangladesh, Nepal, Pakistan, Tibet and Sri Lanka.
